

Ready-Made Corporate Workshops

Available to Order

These pre-made online sessions offer affordable, socially distant, training opportunities for your team. They promote in-demand power skills, including: creative thinking, emotional intelligence, problem solving, collaboration, and adaptability. Invest in your team to maximise the potential of your department.

Taster Sessions:

These are one hour interactive workshops run online via Zoom. Your team will come away having worked practically together on a specific area for improvement. They will leave the session with tips and tools they can action immediately.

Taster Sessions include: Managing Nerves, Conflict Resolution, Influencing Skills, Storytelling for Business, Inclusive Meeting Practices, Client Relationships, and Listening Skills.

Exploratory Workshops:

These are three hour interactive, participatory sessions run online via Zoom. Your team will come away having worked practically together on a specific area for improvement. They will leave the session with personal feedback and suggestions they can action immediately.

Exploratory Workshops offered: Pitching with Story, Negotiation in Practice, Presenting Online, and Business Etiquette.

Training Courses:

These are six hour interactive, participatory courses run online via Zoom. These courses can be split over two or three days, either in the same week or in consecutive weeks. Your team will come away having immersed themselves in new skills. They will leave the course having practiced the tools we explore, and with personal feedback they can action immediately.

Training Courses available: Presentation Skills, Business Communication, and Leadership for Managers.
